Jurisdiction

This agreement and all claims relating to the relationship between the parties are governed by the laws of Ireland. Each party agrees that any claim or cause of action arising under or relating to this Agreement will be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction located in Ireland and each party irrevocably consents to such personal jurisdiction and waives all objections thereto. If one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding will not impair the validity, legality, or enforceability of the remaining provisions.
